Information as of January 21, 2026:

What happened? On January 16, 2026, (“Petition Date”), each of the Debtors filed with the U. S. Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

What does this mean for creditors? As a result of the bankruptcy filing and pursuant to § 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, an automatic stay has been imposed against most collection activities. This means that creditors generally may not take action to collect debts from the Debtors or the Debtors’ property.

Who is in charge of the bankruptcy estates? On January 21, 2026, the Bankruptcy Court appointed Algernon L. Butler, III as Chapter 7 Trustee (“Chapter 7 Trustee”) for the bankruptcy estates. As a result of the bankruptcy filings and the appointment of the Chapter 7 Trustee, the Debtors are no longer operating, and the bankruptcy estates are under the supervision and control of the Trustee.

Should I file a proof of claim? At this time, it is unknown if there will be assets available to pay creditors. Therefore, it is not necessary to file a proof of claim now, and if it later appears that assets will be available to pay creditors the Clerk will send a notice telling you that you may file a proof of claim and stating the deadline to do so.

When is the § 341 meeting of creditors, and am I required to attend? The § 341 meeting of creditors currently is scheduled to be held at 9:30 a.m. on February 26, 2026, in the U. S. Bankruptcy Administrator’s Meeting Room - Room 108, Alton Lennon Federal Building, 2 Princess Street, Wilmington, NC, at which time a principal of the pre-petition Debtors is required to attend and be questioned under oath by the Trustee.

Creditors are permitted, but not required, to attend the § 341 meeting of creditors. Creditors will neither gain nor lose any rights by electing to attend, or not to attend, the meeting of creditors.

How long will this take? The Chapter 7 Trustee is in the process of administering the bankruptcy estates of the Debtors with the goal of recovering funds to pay creditors back as much as possible. The amount of time it will take to fully administer the cases is unknown at this time.

Who should I contact if I have information that may help in recovering assets or in the administration of the cases? If you believe that you have important information about the Debtors or assets that might be helpful in the process of recovering assets for creditors or in the administration of the cases, you may contact the office of the Chapter 7 Trustee, Algernon L. Butler, III, as follows:

Address: 111 N. 5th Avenue, Wilmington, NC 28401

Email: bigrockinfo@butlerbutler.com

Telephone: (910) 762-1908

Who should I contact for additional information or assistance? While the offices of the U.S. Bankruptcy Clerk and Chapter 7 Trustee work hard to make sure that bankruptcy cases run smoothly and are as successful as possible, unfortunately neither the Clerk nor the Trustee can give you any legal advice. If you have legal questions about the cases or your rights you should contact an attorney.
